Which path shall we take, Might makes right or Right makes might The New Old Common Sense is a confronting, sobering, love-with-hope, persuasive call for worldwide revolution as it simply points to the most important sentence ever written to reveal the reality and evidence of the greater path and the greater story. His story. Your Story. Charlie Solorio has had a lifelong interest in the big questions in life. He is particularly interested in how the spiritual realm interacts with the physical realm in our everyday mundane and adventure-filled experiences, as well as how both interact through the realms of science, medicine, and philosophy. He wrestles with the tension between the hope we have in God and concerns with our tendencies toward self-centeredness. This item ships from multiple locations.
