Christmas now intervened, and was kept at Mosul, where there were other Christians, native as well as foreign, like our explorer. Operations were afterwards resumed at Nimrud, chiefly in the North-west Palace, the most ancient and productive of the ruins. Three months work here caused the entire result to be, that of this under-ground palace twenty-eight rooms had been cleared out and examined, all more or less lined with sculptured slabs of the nature of those already described. Colossal-winged figures, eagle-headed divinities, warlike scenes, hunting pieces, religious ceremonies, made up the staple of them. Winged bulls and lions of course turned up wherever it was possible for them to do so. One remarkably fine bas-relief was now met with of the king by whom the palace was built--Asshurizir-pal, according to Sir Henry Rawlinson...

Reviews

It is one of the most popular publications. It really is filled with knowledge and wisdom. It has been designed in an exceedingly straightforward way and it is merely soon after I finished reading this pdf by which it actually transformed me, affecting the way in my opinion.
