Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In this book you will find a true story of my life as a college student, and the hardships I faced every day. There were times I wanted so badly to give up but with friends, and the power of God living within me those challenges passed. They were not easy, and college is no play ground, however, if you have a dream as I, there will be no stopping in order to complete the things of life that one longs to see happen. Today I am 44, and have a double masters that will allow me to teach whether being in a community school or a college professor, a IT professional or any other job that I may want to take to make this world complete for me. You will find several events that seem to be unlivable, and days that many would have never taken that route because most individuals are too proud to respect what life it truly about. Many fail because of their raising not having the discipline as a child to face the...
