With expressions, that I should conceive a hatred to myself were I capable of a farther attempt to make an impression on you. Adieu! I shall for ever love and honour your generous design, and -will always have this share of merit with you, and no necessity nor other unfortunate circumstance shall again force me to give an alarm to your humanity, or expose me to myself for having dared to raise your curiosity to the knowledge of that which charity for every well-meaning person commands me to conceal. Vous -allez vers la reputation d'vrs le credit, el mot fen reviens. LETTER V. The following most charming and affectionate letters universally admired, -was written by Mr Pope to the Bijliop of Rochester, about a month before his banishment. ONCE more I write to you as I promised, and this once I fear will be the last; the curtain: will soon be drawn between my friend and me; and nothing left but to wish you a long good night. May you enjoy a state of repose in this life, not unlike that sleep of the foul which some have been: lieved is to succeed it, where we ly utterly forget. ful of that world from which we are gone, and ripening for that to which we are to go. If you retain any memory of the past, let it only image to you what has pleased you best; sometimes pre sent a dream of an...
