

Kevin James and the Red Duck Musical Theater (Paperback)

By J Cain Keener

Outskirts Press, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 224 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Kevin James and the Red Duck Musical Theater begins in 1806, introducing us to the odd but wealthy James Family. Third-generation Ducky James and his wife, Red, emigrate from England to Connecticut, and have a son, Kevin James, who has inherited great musical talent and incredibly fast hands. As he grows, he learns music and dance, and studies theater in New York with the famous Paris LaBlue. In 1877, hoping to pursue a musical career, Kevin must first travel to San Francisco to expand the family business. In his journey across the country, Kevin falls in love with the beautiful Charlevoix, who is also traveling to San Francisco where she will study medicine to become a doctor like her African-born father. Kevin battles outlaws and gunslingers, choreographs the unification dance at an Indian powwow, and tries to write songs and script for the musical that keeps playing in his head. Among the diverse cast of characters Kevin encounters is Pistol Lalalala, a famous Canadian female outlaw sporting a handlebar moustache; a singing dentist who can't sing...
