Its purpose was to discuss the question, To what extent and in what ways is it desirable to revise the standardized curriculum of instruction in forestry that for the past 10 years has been more or less closely followed by the leading forest schools of the United States? That curriculum was the outcome of the First National Conference on Education in Forestry, held in December, 1909, when was appointed a committee on standardization of instruction in forestry that published its final report in the Forestry Quarterly for September, 1912 (Vol. X, No. 3). The reasons that led to the conference of 1909 are set forth succinctly by Dean Toumey in his opening address (see p. 4). The second conference on professional forestry education was called by Dean Toumey, of...
