Crystal Pointe Media, Inc., United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The What about Faith is a guide showing God is real in our lives and that saying I believe, is not enough if you want to know Him. It is about having a relationship with God by how you live your life. Having faith is more than just something to believe in. Faith is the way you choose to live the word of God in your every day life. These words show how to realize God s presence through the recognition of His every day events, to our own lives as miracles of His creation. If we believe in a spiritual world full of love and everlasting happiness with God, then most certainly we live in a physical world that He made full of the very same love and happiness with God. Your faith is based upon your love of God. The more you live your love for God, the more your faith becomes your life. According to your faith, be it done unto you Matthew 9:29 Only through the daily practice of our faith can we become better at displaying and living God s way. You will learn how to recognize God in your life as well as how to communicate with God through the three ways to pray to him. Prayer is an important part of your faith. Sharing yourself with God means taking time to speak with him, to be with him and recognizing that He is with you. The more often we acknowledge God s presence the more naturally we express God s love for life in our everyday person. This is an easy guide to see what is hidden behind...
